

Cookies Policy

Our website uses cookies to enhance functionality, improve performance, and provide targeted advertising. By continuing to use our site, you consent to our use of cookies in accordance with this policy.

Types of Cookies and Their Purpose

- Strictly Necessary Cookies: Essential for website operation, enabling basic functions like page navigation and access to secure areas. Disabling these may affect website performance.
- Functionality Cookies: Remember your preferences and choices, such as language or region, improving your browsing experience. Some of these cookies may be managed by third parties outside our country and accepting them implies consent to transfer data internationally.
- Marketing/Targeting Cookies: Used to display relevant advertising on and off our site, based on your interests. Accepting these cookies may involve transferring your data internationally due to some providers and third parties being located abroad.
- Analytical (Performance) Cookies: Collect information on website usage, helping us understand which pages and products interest our users the most. Similar to others, accepting these cookies may result in international data transfer.

Managing Cookies

You can manage your cookie preferences through your browser settings, though restricting cookies may impact your user experience. For more details on managing cookies, refer to your browser's help section.

Updates to the Policy

We may update this policy to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements. Please review it periodically for the latest information.
